Agile at Work Event

Sponsored by Agile My Way

Based on requests for more Agile events, David Sietz, software architect and former educator, will be offering a hands-on workshop titled Agile at Work.

Durham Public Library
May 17th 2018
6:00 pm - 7:30 pm

This session will provide practical experience with the popular Scrum framework as applied to the general work environment.

Join us as we focus on partnering with customers, identifying value, ensuring delivery, and experiencing "a day in the life" of an Agile team.

Seats are limited to 9 participants, so register early and secure your seat.
